

Cool Websites:

To add to the list, just send a brief note to Lyle Zimbler. lzimmer@hotmail.com

<https://admin.readinga-z.com/useraccount/login.php> offers leveled reading samples & reproducible booklets for grades k – 8 requires one to subscribe (about $100 a year)

<http://members.enchantedlearning.com/members/login.shtml/>

A video source to compliment your instruction. Username: ascension Password: shore32

<http://www.cosmeo.com/>

Another video source to demonstrate concepts in Science, Math, Social Studies, English, Health, Art & Music using video samples for grades k – 8 requires one to subscribe ( about $10 a month)

<http://www.internet4classrooms.com/>

Math & English skill practice for grades k – 12
It is FREE.

<http://www.webster.com/>

dictionary & thesaurus for English & Spanish for all grades.

<http://www.pandora.com/>

background music of your choice while grading papers at your desk. Must have a teachers desk (or of a certain respectable age) Thanks Mrs. Creed!

<http://www.readingrockets.org/index.php>

Language Arts/Reading source for strategies, techniques, kids' books & articles of interest.

www.rubistar.com

pre-made (can be adjusted) rubrics for all curriculum areas. Thanks Mrs. Creed!

<http://www.pbs.org/teachersource/>

All curriculum areas. All Grade levels. Thanks Mrs. Fogarty.

<http://kids.nationalgeographic.com/portal/site/Kids/menuitem.1977d82a49287d81b92c3010ca248a0c/?vgnnextoid=9e18edfab621d010VgnVCM1000006640a8c0RCRD>

Social Studies and the world! All grade levels. Thanks Mrs. Fogarty.

www.PlanetEsme.com

Chicago author and certified "radiologist" offers a wealth of information and reviews of children's literature. Thanks Ms. Tanin

www.Teachers.net

Education gurus, Harry and Rosemary Wong, maintain "the ultimate" teacher resource. The articles are fantastic. There are also lessons, chatboards, etc. Thanks Ms. Tanin