

Ascension Centennial Book Order Form

Do you have your Ascension facts straight?

Do you remember when each pastor served and where our kindergarten met during each of its incarnations? The story of Truman's visit to Ascension? Do you remember "the shows" and what year the gym Mass started? Now there is a reference to help you when you need to know, for instance, the name of the owner of our first meeting place.

Ascension's Centennial Book is the history of our parish, beginning with our beginning in 1907, and culminating with our Centennial Year celebrations. It is filled with the facts, and also with pictures and reflections about Ascension. The book has arrived and is available for $40 in the parish or school office. We will ship them anywhere in the United States for an additional $2.

The book was written by a group of parishioners who gathered material from parish archives, personal interviews, and local and regional news sources. According to Pastoral Associate Vicky Tufano, the book's editor, the committee received a lot of information from the Ursuline Archives in St. Louis, from the Chicago Tribune archives and from books published at Ascension for previous celebrations. "We also got a great sense of the spirit of the community by going through our Dome collection, which dates back to the early 1940s," Ms. Tufano says. "The best part, though, was probably talking to people who were there. We are all awed by those in our family who can set us straight because they lived our history."

To order books, please send the form below with your payment to Ascension Parish, 808 S. East Avenue, Oak Park, IL 60304. Forms are also available on the school website, www.Ascension-School.com. For more information, please call the parish office at 708-848-2703.
